

Law and Taxation

Marco Gregg

Visiting Professor, Abay Myrzakhmetov Kokshetau University

Academic Year 2023 - 2024

Introducing the Speaker

- Marco Greggì, Professor of Tax Law at the University of Ferrara, Italy;
 - <https://www.linkedin.com/in/marcogreggi/>
 - https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Marco_Greggi
 - www.dirittotributario.eu (work in progress).

Introducing the Course ...

- Law and Taxation:

1. What are taxes ?
2. Why are we supposed to pay them ?
3. Why are they so important in business development ?
4. How taxes are charged when a company invests or operates abroad ?
5. Are there ways and means to prevent excessive taxation abiding by the law ?
6. How international taxation might interact with Kazakhstan's development ?

... and the Place I am from

- University of Ferrara, Italy.

Why This is Important for You

- Taxation is a crucial discipline in the everyday legal activity:
 - Understanding the global business;
 - Evaluating the profitability of foreign investments and off-shore operations;
 - Advise properly clients in their decisions;
 - Elaborate the best Policy decisions for Kazakhstan;
 - Assess the actual financial impact of a business strategy understanding strength, weaknesses and opportunities ...
- You might not be interested in taxes, but they are in you ...